section 5 – privacy notice

collection, use and disclosure of information

You are providing personal information to ME for the primary purpose of ME contacting you, assessing your application, verifying your identity and then establishing and administering your account. Your personal information may be used and disclosed to third party service providers for these purposes and without this information, ME may not be able to consider or approve your application or provide our services.

You must only give us information about any other person with their permission, and if you have told them about this privacy statement.

Some laws require or authorise our collection of your personal information including (where applicable):

- the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth);
- the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth); and

We also collect your personal information for the purposes of:

- customer relations including management of our relationship with you and market or customer satisfaction research and product development, and to obtain aggregate information for statistical or research purposes;
- our internal operations including record keeping, risk management and auditing, training, file reviews and portfolio analysis;
- information technology systems development and testing;
- investigating, resolving and preventing complaints;
- considering any other application made by you to ME for financial products or services;
- conducting fraud assessments;
- informing you about any of our products, or those of our alliance partners, that may be of interest to you; and
- reporting and data analytics, including for regulatory, management, statistical or research purposes.

We may disclose your personal information for those purposes to:

- our related entities, service providers, contractors, external advisers or alliance partners (for example a union, superannuation fund, insurer, the Co-op or other third parties with which we have arrangements);
- government and regulatory bodies, law enforcement bodies and courts as required by law or in accordance with prudent banking practice;
- external complaint resolution bodies;
- any person we are considering selling part of our banking business to;
- payment system operators; and
- other financial institutions.

We may also disclose your personal information to our third party service providers for them to help us provide banking and related services to you. Our third party service providers may store or access your personal information overseas, including in the USA and United Kingdom, as well as those countries listed in the ME Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy.

marketing

ME may use your personal information to get in touch with you about ME products and services that may be of interest. If you do not want us to do this, please call us on 1300 658 108 or log in to Internet Banking to send us a secure email.

access to your personal information and complaints

ME's Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy contains information about how you can:

- access and seek to correct your personal information held by ME; and
- complain about a breach by ME of the Australian Privacy Principles and how ME will deal with the complaint.
