privacy notice.

By completing an application, you are providing your personal information to Members Equity Bank Limited and its related entities (collectively ME, we, us, our) for the primary purpose of assessing your application, verifying your identity, assessing you for insurance and then establishing and administering your account. Your personal information may be used and disclosed to third party service providers for these purposes. Without this information we may not be able to consider or approve your application or provide our services.

Personal information that we collect includes credit information. Credit information includes information about your past experiences with us or other lenders, the kinds of credit products you have or have applied for, how you have managed your obligations, information contained in a credit report about you and information about your credit worthiness that has been derived from a report about you. You must only give us information about any other person with their permission, and only if you have taken them through this privacy notice.

collection of information.

Some laws require or authorise our collection of your personal information, including:

- the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth); and
- the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth).

We also collect your personal information (including, as permitted by law, information derived from a credit report) for the purposes of:

- considering any other application made by you for products or services or your suitability if you have offered to be a guarantor or security provider;
- customer relations including management of our relationship with you and market or customer satisfaction research and product development;
- our internal operations including record keeping, risk management, auditing purposes, training, securitisation, credit scoring, file reviews, actuarial processes and portfolio analysis;
- information technology systems development and testing;
- arrangements with other organisations to provide services in relation to our products and services (for example, we may arrange for mailing houses to distribute loan statements to customers);
- investigating, resolving and preventing complaints;
- conducting fraud assessments; and
- reporting and data analytics, including for regulatory, management, statistical or research purposes.

In addition, (unless you instruct us otherwise) we may use your personal information (other than information derived from a credit report) to inform you about any of our products, or those of our alliance partners, that may be of interest to you and if you are a member or a customer of one of our alliance partners (including a superannuation fund, union, insurer or other third party with whom we have arrangements), we may also use your information for the purpose of providing benefits to you or to obtain aggregate information for statistical or research purposes.

use and disclosure of information – general.

We may disclose your personal information (including, as permitted by law, information derived from a credit report) for the purposes above to:

- our related entities, insurers, service providers, agents (including debt collection agencies), contractors or external advisers to help us provide banking and related services to you (including lawyers and auditors);
- any person acting on your behalf, including your legal and financial advisers;
- your broker (if applicable);
- government and other regulatory bodies, law enforcement bodies and courts as required by law or in accordance with prudent banking practice;
- third parties providing fraud detection services;
- external complaint resolution bodies (for example, the Financial Ombudsman Service Australia);
- any person or entity to whom we are considering selling part of our banking business;
- rating agencies; and
- other financial institutions and credit providers.

We may also disclose your personal information (other than information derived from a credit report) to our alliance partners, your referees, including your employer (to confirm details about you) and payments system operators. Our third party service providers may store or access your personal information overseas, including in Canada, USA, New Zealand, Philippines, Singapore, China, Japan, Hong Kong, India, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea, South Africa, United Kingdom, France, Belgium and Germany, as well as the countries listed in our Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy, which may change from time to time.

credit reporting bodies.

We may collect personal information about you from, and/or disclose it to, credit reporting bodies (CRBs), including by:

- disclosing any credit information we hold about you which may include your identification information. The CRB may include this information in credit reports provided to other credit providers to assist them in assessing your credit worthiness;
- disclosing any failures to meet your payment obligations, or any fraud or other serious credit infringement you have committed; and
- obtaining a credit report about you for the purpose of assessing your application or for collecting overdue payments.

The CRBs we use and where you can find their privacy policies are:

- Equifax – www.equifax.com.au/privacy or phone 1300 762 207;
- Dun & Bradstreet – www.checkyourcredit.com.au or phone 1300 734 806;
- Experian – www.experian.com.au or phone – 1300 783 684.

You can ask a CRB not to use or disclose credit information it holds about you for a period of 21 days (called a "ban period") without your consent if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity fraud.

CRBs at our request or the request of another credit provider, may use credit information they hold to "pre-screen" you for direct marketing. You can ask a CRB not to do this.

marketing.

ME may use your personal information to get in touch with you about ME products and services, or those of our alliance partners, that may be of interest. If you do not want us to do this, please call us on 13 15 63 or log in to internet banking to send us a secure email.

further information.

You have rights to access and seek correction of personal information we hold about you, and our Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy contains information about how you can do this, how you can make a complaint about a breach of your privacy rights (including a breach of Part IIIA of the Privacy Act), and how we deal with complaints.

ME.

You can contact ME's Privacy Officer on 13 15 63 or by writing to the Privacy Officer at ME, GPO Box 1345, Melbourne VIC 3001 or by email at privacy@mebank.com.au. ME's Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy is available at mebank.com.au/privacy.

verifying your identity.

If you are not an existing ME customer before we can open an account we are legally required to verify your identity. We may do this electronically using reliable and independent data sources. We will contact you to request identification documents if we cannot verify your identity electronically.

Credit Information File This is one of the best electronic data sources we can use to verify your identity. We will not access your credit rating or credit history. We will only check your name, address and date of birth against those held on Dun & Bradstreet's Credit Information File.

If you consent to ME using your Credit Information File to help verify your identity then you need to read and accept the following terms and conditions.

- By ticking this box you consent to ME disclosing your name, residential address and date of birth to a credit reporting agency to assist us to verify your identity. We will request and the credit reporting agency may provide an assessment of whether the personal information provided matches (in whole or in part) personal information contained in a credit information file held by the credit reporting agency. In preparing the assessment the credit reporting agency may use the personal information about you and other individuals contained in their credit information files. No other information about your credit information file will be provided to ME. If you don't want your identity verified using your credit information file we will try to verify your identity from other electronic data sources.
