1 These Terms and Conditions

1.1 Introduction

These Standard Terms and Conditions, together with our invitation letter set out the terms you are offering to enter into a loan contract with us. The terms of the invitation and the information required to be given to you before you enter into the contract are set out in two parts.

Your invitation letter contains Part A – Your Personal Loan Details ('Part A') and these terms and conditions are Part B – Standard Terms and Conditions ('Part B').

It is important that you read the invitation letter and these terms and conditions carefully and keep them for future reference. Once you have made the offer and we have accepted it, Part A and Part B contain the terms of your contract with us.

1.2 Electronic Access Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions are in addition to and must be read with our Electronic Access Terms and Conditions. The Electronic Access Terms and Conditions set out your and our rights and obligations when you use an electronic access method to conduct a transaction in relation to this loan contract (e.g. when you use phone or internet banking to make an additional repayment on your loan).

1.3 Your liability if there is more than one of you

If there is more than one of you applying for this loan contract, you are jointly and severally liable for the obligations under this loan contract. This means that we may require any one of you, or all of you, or any combination of you, to perform any of the obligations, or pay any amounts owing under this loan contract.

2 Words used in this loan contract

- a. We, us and our mean the person named as the credit provider in Section 2 of Part A.
- b. You means any person named as the borrower in Section 2 of Part A. If there is more than one person named, you means each of those persons separately and all of them as a group. Your and similar parts of speech have corresponding meanings.
- c. Some words used in Part B have special meanings. They are explained in Section 17.

3 Setting up your loan

3.1 Things you must have done

We only have to lend you the amount of credit if you:

- a. have made the offer contained in the invitation letter, we have conducted our assessment and accepted your offer;
- b. have paid us all the credit fees and charges that we require you to pay, or made arrangements for their payment which are satisfactory to us;
- c. have told us the purpose of the loan, which we have advised you is an acceptable purpose, and this purpose has not changed;
- d. have provided a direct debit authority form acceptable to us (or we have agreed to accept a different method of repayment) authorising us to withdraw amounts due under the loan contract, in Australian dollars, from an account in Australia;
- e. are not in default under this loan contract;
- f. have signed any borrowers acknowledgement we require as part of the application process; and
- g. have met any other special conditions in the loan contract.

3.2 Drawdown

- a. We need three working days notice to arrange for the amount of credit to be made available to you in your nominated account, or by any other method agreed with us. If you tell us by letter we need five working days.
- b. You may only borrow the amount of credit in a single borrowing, unless we agree otherwise.
- c. You must request the amount of credit to be paid into your nominated account (or by any other method agreed with us) no more than 90 days after the date of this loan contract, unless we agree on a later date. If you do not request payment of the amount of credit within this time we do not have to provide the amount of credit to you and we may end this loan contract.

4 How we calculate amounts in the financial table

When we calculate the repayment amounts and the total interest charges in the financial table:

- a. we assume the whole 'Amount of credit' specified in the financial table is paid into your nominated account on the disclosure date;
- b. we use the annual percentage rate in the financial table for the whole term of the loan;
- c. we assume each repayment is made on a repayment date and there are no prepayments; and
- d. we do not include credit fees and charges.

If any of these things does not happen, the actual repayment amounts and total interest charges may differ from the amounts in the financial table.

5 Repayments

5.1 Repayments

You must pay us each repayment by the repayment date for that repayment.

5.2 Non-working days

If a repayment date is not a working day, the repayment is not due until the next working day.

5.3 Repayment on the maturity date

On the maturity date, you must pay us:

- a. all the remaining loan balance;
- b. any interest accrued on the loan balance but not yet charged to your loan account; and
- c. any fees and charges or enforcement expenses payable on or before the maturity date but not yet charged to your loan account.

5.4 How you make repayments

- a. You must pay all amounts you owe us under this loan contract in Australian dollars by direct debit from your nominated account, unless we agree upon some other method with you. You may not make payments concerning this loan contract in any other way (such as by cash or cheque) unless we agree.
- b. Your nominated account may be with a bank or another financial institution and must be in the name of at least one of the borrowers. You must give us details of your nominated account. We must approve of your nominated account and the financial institution with which your nominated account is held.

6 Interest and default interest

6.1 Calculation of interest

Interest on the loan balance is calculated daily by applying the daily percentage rate (the annual percentage rate divided by 365) to the daily loan balance.

6.2 Default interest

If you do not pay us a repayment on time:

- a. interest on the default amount is calculated daily by applying the daily percentage rate for default interest (the default interest rate divided by 365) to the default amount until you actually pay it; and
- b. interest on the remainder of the loan balance is calculated in accordance with Section 6.1.

6.3 Charging of interest

Interest is charged to your loan on each interest debit date for the period from and including the prior interest debit date to (but not including) the current interest debit date. Interest will be charged to your loan on the first interest debit date for the period from and including the drawing date to (but not including) that first interest debit date.

6.4 End of day

For the purposes of calculating the daily loan balance a day ends at 3:00pm Melbourne time.

7 Fees and charges

7.1 Fees and charges payable

You must pay us either on demand or after we charge them to your loan account:

- a. the credit fees and charges in the financial table; and
- b. any government charges and duties payable on amounts we receive from you or credit to your loan account if we ask you to, whether or not you are primarily liable for them.

We may vary the credit fees and charges and may also introduce new credit fees and charges in accordance with Section 10.2.

7.2 Establishment fees are non-refundable if:

- a. the contract is not entered; or
- b. this contract is terminated prior to drawing for any reason (including under the circumstances described in Section 3.1), we do not have to return to you any amounts you have already paid us.

8 Application of payments

8.1 Order of application

Repayments received by us will be used to pay any amounts you owe us under this loan contract in any order.

8.2 Application between loan contracts

If you have any other loans with us and do not tell us how the repayment is to be applied, we may apply the repayment to any or all of your loans.

8.3 Account combination

- a. We may combine the balances of two or more of your accounts held with us, even if those accounts are not both loan accounts. For example, if your loan account has a payment overdue, we can use funds you have deposited in another account to make the overdue payment.
- b. We do not have to give you advance notice of when we are going to do this, but we will tell you promptly if we combine any of your accounts.

8.4 Set-off

We can set-off any deposit you have with us, or other money we are liable to pay you, against amounts which are due and payable under this loan contract.

9 Your loan account

9.1 We will let you know what you owe

We will send you a statement of account at least every six months.

9.2 When transactions on your account take effect

For the purposes of this loan contract, a debit or credit to your loan account is taken to have been made, and has effect, on the date we assign to the debit or credit, which may be different to the date we process it.

9.3 We may adjust your account

We may charge or credit your loan account to undo or adjust previous transactions (for example because of an error or because a cheque is dishonoured) and make other necessary changes (including to interest charges) that result from the first change.

10 Changes to your loan contract

10.1 General

We may change any of the terms or conditions of this loan contract (except for things in the financial table that we agreed not to change) without obtaining your agreement.

10.2 Changes in credit fees and charges

- a. We may change the amount, frequency, time for payment, or method of calculation of credit fees or charges, or may introduce new credit fees or charges.
- b. We will tell you about any of these kinds of changes (which do not reduce your obligations or extend the time for payment) at least 20 days before they take effect. We will do this either in writing to you or by advertising the change in a newspaper circulating in your state or territory.
- c. If we advertise a change in a newspaper, we will also give you information about it before or when the next statement of account is sent to you after the change takes effect.
- d. Where a change reduces your obligations, or extends the time for payment, we will only give you information about it before or when the next statement of account is sent to you after the change takes effect.

Information Statement

Things you should know about your proposed credit contract

This statement tells you about some of the rights and obligations of yourself and your credit provider. It does not state the terms and conditions of your contract.

If you have any concerns about your contract, contact the credit provider and, if you still have concerns, your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme, or get legal advice.

The contract

1 How can I get details of my proposed credit contract?

Your credit provider must give you a precontractual statement containing certain information about your contract. The precontractual statement, and this document, must be given to you before –

- your contract is entered into; or
- you make an offer to enter into the contract; whichever happens first.

2 How can I get a copy of the final contract?

If the contract document is to be signed by you and returned to your credit provider, you must be given a copy to keep. Also, the credit provider must give you a copy of the final contract within 14 days after it is made. This rule does not, however, apply, if the credit provider has previously given you a copy of the contract document to keep.

If you want another copy of your contract, write to your credit provider and ask for one. Your credit provider may charge you a fee. Your credit provider has to give you a copy –

- within 14 days of your written request if the original contract came into existence 1 year or less before your request; or
- otherwise within 30 days of your written request.

3 Can I terminate the contract?

Yes. You can terminate the contract by writing to the credit provider so long as –

- you have not obtained any credit under the contract; or
- a card or other means of obtaining credit given to you by your credit provider has not been used to acquire goods or services for which credit is to be provided under the contract.

However, you will still have to pay any fees or charges incurred before you terminated the contract.

4 Can I pay my credit contract out early?

Yes. Pay your credit provider the amount required to pay out your credit contract on the day you wish to end your contract.

5 How can I find out the pay out figure?

You can write to your credit provider at any time and ask for a statement of the pay out figure as at any date you specify. You can also ask for details of how the amount is made up.

Your credit provider must give you the statement within 7 days after you give your request to the credit provider. You may be charged a fee for the statement.

6 Will I pay less interest if I pay out my contract early?

Yes. The interest you can be charged depends on the actual time money is owing. However, you may have to pay an early termination charge (if your contract permits your credit provider to charge one) and other fees.

7 Can my contract be changed by my credit provider?

Yes, but only if your contract says so.

8 Will I be told in advance if my credit provider is going to make a change in the contract?

That depends on the type of change.

For example –

- you get at least same day notice for a change to an annual percentage rate. That notice may be a written notice to you or a notice published in a newspaper.
- you get 20 days advance written notice for –
 - a change in the way in which interest is calculated; or
 - a change in credit fees and charges; or
 - any other changes by your credit provider; except where the change reduces what you have to pay or the change happens automatically under the contract.

9 Is there anything I can do if I think that my contract is unjust?

Yes. You should first talk to your credit provider. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

If that is not successful you may contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme. External dispute resolution is a free service established to provide you with an independent mechanism to resolve specific complaints. Your credit provider's external dispute resolution provider is the Financial Ombudsman Service and can be contacted at:

General

10 What do I do if I can not make a repayment?

Get in touch with your credit provider immediately. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement. You can ask your credit provider to change your contract in a number of ways –

- to extend the term of your contract and reduce payments; or
- to extend the term of your contract and delay payments for a set time; or
- to delay payments for a set time.

11 What if my credit provider and I can not agree on a suitable arrangement?

If the credit provider refuses your request to change the repayments, you can ask the credit provider to review this decision if you think it is wrong.

If the credit provider still refuses your request you can complain to the external dispute resolution scheme that your credit provider belongs to. Further details about this scheme are set out below in question 13.

12 Can my credit provider take action against me?

Yes, if you are in default under your contract. But the law says that you cannot be unduly harassed or threatened for repayments. If you think you are being unduly harassed or threatened, the credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme or ASIC, or get legal advice.

13 Do I have any other rights and obligations?

Yes. The law will give you other rights and obligations. You should also read your contract carefully.

IF YOU HAVE ANY COMPLAINTS ABOUT YOUR CREDIT CONTRACT, OR WANT MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER. YOU MUST ATTEMPT TO RESOLVE YOUR COMPLAINT WITH YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER BEFORE CONTACTING YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME. IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT WHICH REMAINS UNRESOLVED AFTER SPEAKING TO YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER YOU CAN CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME OR GET LEGAL ADVICE. EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION IS A FREE SERVICE ESTABLISHED TO PROVIDE YOU WITH AN INDEPENDENT MECHANISM TO RESOLVE SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS.
